To Whom It May Concern,

The research project of Erwin Schoonderwaldt performed at IRCAM during his two visits has been very productive, as described in details in his scientific report. His mission is regarded as very successful; it allowed establishing a fruitful collaboration between by KTH and IRCAM, as evidenced by joint publication at the NIME 06 conference. Moreover, his visit stimulated new research questions that will be pursued collaboratively by both institutions.

Best Regards,

Frédéric Bevilacqua
